

Title IX: What Does It Actually Mean?

Everyone's heard of Title IX, but what are the policies and procedures regarding complaints and violations of the policy on campus? What does a Title IX violation hearing look like? Can I bring an attorney to such a hearing? As an attorney, are your clients afforded all of the Due Process Rights as at similar hearings? Join us for a panel discussion to answer those and other questions surrounding Title IX.

WHEN: Monday, April 10th, 2017 5-7 P.M.

WHERE: USD School of Law Courtroom

FEAURING: Michelle Johnson, Ed.D. – South Dakota State University Title IX/EO Coordinator

Human Resources Department - Office of Title IX/EO

David Herbster –The University of South Dakota
Director, Department of Athletics

Deborah Dodge – The University of South Dakota
Director, Student Rights & Responsibilities

Sponsored by Women In Law, Sports Law, BLSA, and OUTLaws

Please join us in the Law School Commons Area following the panel for a taco bar and refreshments.

*If you are a person with a disability and need a special accommodation to fully participate, please contact Disability Services at least 48 hours prior to the event at 605-677-6389.